

TWO DEGREES OF CHANGE

Helena Morrissey

CEO, Newton Investment Management

A Cambridge philosophy graduate, Helena began her career with Schrodgers in New York. Helena joined Newton in 1994 as a fixed-income fund manager and was appointed CEO in 2001. In June 2014 Helena was appointed Chair of The Investment Association, the UK's industry trade body whose members manage £5 trillion. Helena has been appointed by the UK Chancellor of the Exchequer to the UK's Financial Services Trade and Investment Board.

In 2010, Helena founded the 30% Club, a cross-business initiative aimed at achieving 30% women on UK corporate boards. Helena has been named one of Fortune Magazine's World's 50 Greatest Leaders. In 2013 and 2014 she was voted one of the 50 Most Influential People in Finance globally by Bloomberg Markets. She was appointed CBE in the 2012 New Year's Honours list.
